Good Morning Mrs. Clayton-Tarvin,

I spent time reviewing the video this weekend and, like DDA Young pointed out previously, Mr. Johnson's actions, although offensive and disruptive, do not rise to the level of a credible threat which can be criminally prosecuted.

At 15:18 mark he yells out from the audience, disrupts meeting during Trustee comments. He was asked to quiet down or leave, he then was shuffled out the door, he was kept outside by armed security and our employees.

At 2 hours 57 min mark, he comes back and apologized and then lost it again and threatened me with talking about putting my head on a stick.

Note, he also spoke in the first Public Comments period right at the beginning of the meeting, ranting. I also have a link to the entire meeting audio if you want it, without breaks.
